FEBRUARY

February is the month when hearts go on display; in every card shop window there's a fanciful array.

Painted hearts and lacy hearts, some with darts & cupid's bow, and on each card endearing words that say, "I love you so."

I'd like to fill the mailman's pack up to the very brim

With Valentines to bless each home and all who dwell within.

I'd like to make a mother smile and brighten Grandma's eyes,
And give a dad who feels left out a shiny bright surprise.

I'd like to give to every child a valentine to treasure;

One that says "Without a doubt you're loved beyond all measure!"

For all the lonely hearts I'd add a special line or two,

Letting them know that they are loved each day the whole year through!

A super giant valentine to the world I'd send;

I'd ask all nations to join hearts and truly be good friends.

I'd fill each mailman's pack sky-high with loving hearts entwined,

Until the whole wide world became a great big valentine!
